

Credit Card Research

*Since you seem to always be behind with your bills, you are looking into getting your first credit card. You want to make sure that you get the best deal for your money because, after all, this is your credit you are dealing with. Due FRIDAY, February 20th

1. Obtain a blank credit report. (HINT: from one of the three credit bureaus)
2. Obtain three (3) different major credit card applications showing their interest rates, late charges, grace period, etc. from three (3) different companies.
3. Obtain a department store credit card application showing their interest rate (cannot be one chosen for question 2)
4. Using APA format, discuss in writing how you located the blank credit report, why you chose your three (3) major credit cards, and why you chose the department store credit card.
5. Attach blank credit application, major credit card applications and department store application behind question 4's response.

**All credit card information (name, interest rates, etc.) must be identified/highlighted on each application.
